Sealed Proposals.

STATE ADOPTION OF HIGH SCHOOL Text Books At a meeting of the State Board of Education, held on January 7, 1910, an order was entered authorizing the secretary of the State Board of Education to advertise for bids in the matter of the selection of text books for high schools for a term of not less than four years, beginning August 1, 1010.
In accordance with the provider schools for a term of not less than four years, beginning August 1, 1910.

In accordance with the provisions of said resolution, I hereby give notice that on or before APRIL 15, 1910, at 12 octock noon, at the office of the State Board of Education, at Richmond, Va., sealed proposals will be received for supplying public schools of the State of Virginia with text books for use in the high schools of the State as previded by law. Such proposals are requested on both the single list plan and the multiple list plan, and should state the prices at which each book offered will be sold to the children or patrons of the schools and the exchange prices where such book shall take the place of a book now in use.

A circular giving a copy of the law under which this adoption is made and other particulars will be multed on application.

The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

Given under my hand this 15th any of January, 1910.

Real Estate.

Real Estate.

Following in the wake of those who claim to be the leading real estate agents of this city (with Manchester to be annexed), we beg to state that we have a few choice crumbs still left, which were overlooked by them, and have been taken up by us (we being just in rear of their counting room), which, if swallowed by you now, can be easily digested, and at no distant day will land you a good profit. The easy to lose us among the millions, but when you come down to the hundreds and thousands, you will find us doing business at the same old stand, which is No, 11 North Eleventh Street, where we gladden the hearts of all we meet.

Yours to serve. Yours to serve.
